Dear Friends and Family,

We'd like to invite you to our Annual Golf & Food Festival.

The Woodmere Country Club will be hosting our outing this year on:

* Thursday June 16th, 2016 *******

Let's polish our golf clubs, work on our handicap and come spend a great day in the sun as we welcome you to our 7th annual golf outing. For those of you who do not play golf and want to show your support, Tickets for the cocktail hour and dinner are available for purchase. Many of you have been with us from the beginning so you are well aware of the good time we share together. For some newcomers be prepared for a wonderful day of great food, lots of laughs and uniting together for a great cause. Councilman Anthony D. Macagnone of Oyster Bay will be our honoree this year. He is also Director for the Northeast Regional Council of Carpenters.

Please check out our updated website at www.barbarasteamofhope.org

We hope you can join us for this year's event and always appreciate your support!

Check-in will be 9 AM - Breakfast 9 AM -11 AM - Shotgun start: 11:30AM

Cocktail Hour 4:30PM

Dinner 6PM

Regards,

MAN OF THE YEAR

Councilman Anthony D. Macagnone of Oyster Bay

Director for the Northeast Regional Council of Carpenters

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Anthony D. Macagnone was born and raised in Farmingdale. Councilman Anthony D. Macagnone was elected to the Town Board in November 1999. He initiated legislation to establish a "living wage" law, which ensures that employees of companies that perform service contracts or sub-contract for the Town earn an hourly wage adequate to meet their needs. He sponsored legislation that made the Town of Oyster Bay the first Town in Nassau County to require contractors and subcontractors doing business with the Town to have apprenticeship training programs. He also introduced a comprehensive next generation homebuyers plan, which will allow more young people the opportunity to purchase homes in the Town of Oyster Bay.

Councilman Macagnone has been a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America since 1981. He worked his way up through the ranks of apprentice, journeyman, foreman and shop steward. Councilman Macagnone is currently the L.I. Director for the Northeast Regional Council of Carpenters and an officer in Carpenters Local 290. He is also a delegate for the Nassau-Suffolk Building Trades, on the Career Advisory Council of Farmingdale, the Vice President of the Hicksville Community Council, the Town liaison for the Long Island North Shore Heritage Area (LINSHA), a Board Member of the Italian Political Action Committee and an honorary member of the Atlantic Steamer Fire Company No. 1, as well as being active in a number of civic and sports organizations serving the Farmingdale community. He is also a graduate of the inaugural class of The Energeia Partnership – The Academy for Regional Stewardship at Molloy College, and a 2013 distinguished Honoree of the Lt. Det. Joseph Petrosino Association in America Inc.,
